ABSTRACTED-PUB-NO: WO 200062224A
BASIC-ABSTRACT:

NOVELTY - Information to be accessed electronically through a RDBMS comprising SQL, is generated. After setting processing rules, one marginal value of profit is computed for objects measured using the set rules. Then fully absorbed profit adjustment value is measured for each object. The marginal value and fully absorbed profit adjustment value are combined to create a measure for object level profitability.

USE - For use in organization to determine object level profitability in RDBMS comprising SQL.

ADVANTAGE - Provides a metric of profit measurement consistent with the generally accepted accounting principles at a level of detail that has not been accomplished using the traditional general ledger based data with analytical and/or sample survey based information. The use of rule driven and database measurement processes will give large scale business at lower cost of maintenance and technologically scalable tool to measure profit at a level of precision or resolution not possible in existing financial performance measurement process.

DESCRIPTION OF DRAWING(S) - The figure shows the process flow for determining the object level profitability.
